Commercial Lunch.

There will be served during the Summer a regular commercial lunch at Anderson's lunch counter in Weiland's saloon. It will be a hot lunch with soup, beer, tea, coffee or milk, for 25 cents. It is proposed to make this the best lunch in the city for the money, and will run from 12 to 2 o'clock.

Pasturage.

On the Duffy and Kirman ranches which contain over 700 acres, being the largest body of pasture land in Ormsby county. As the waters from Clear Creek flume, Ash Canyon and Lake View flow through the property it is the best watered. From the extended range it is eminently fitted for stock cattle and horses. Two bulls, a Holstein and a Jersey, are kept for the service of stock. A limited number of milch cows will be driven from and returned to the city daily. Season commences April 15th. Terms reasonable.

The Coon Wins at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Sept. 6.—A large number of colored people witnessed the fight tonight between George Dixon of Boston and Jack Skelly of Brooklyn. The men weighed 116 pounds.

First round—Men feeling each other; Dixon led with left on Skelly's face; they clinched and referee made them break; Dixon rushed but missed both swung and missed and clinched very hard.

Second—Dixon led with right and Skelly jumped away; Dixon swung his left hard on Skelly's stomach and made him wince; Dixon swung on Skelly's ribs; both fighting hard; first blood for Dixon, who had the best of the round.

Third—Dixon swung his right on Skelly's jaw, knocking him down; Dixon forced the fighting and was very fresh; Dixon landed hard on Skelly's neck, nearly knocking him off his pins; Skelly was growing weak.

Fourth—They both swung and ducked away; Skelly swung his left on Dixon's chin; both went to logging; Dixon had the best of the round.

Fifth—Both sparred for wind; Dixon swung his right on Skelly's neck; Skelly bled profusely.

Sixth—Dixon swung his left on Skelly's ribs, and swung hard on his head with right; Skelly retaliated with right on Dixon's neck; Skelly jabbed him hard in the neck; Skelly upbraid Dixon; honors even.

Seventh—Dixon led but fell short; both winded; they clinched hard; Dixon swung with his right hand on Skelly's eye; Skelly groggy; Dixon knocked Skelly down; call of time saved him.

Eighth—Skelly very tired; Dixon swung left on Skelly's face; Dixon knocked him down twice; he failed to get up after ten seconds and was counted out.

A Desperado Killed.

Huntsville, Ala., September 6.—Newton Copeland, a desperado, was shot and killed on Saturday afternoon while trying to escape from a Sheriff's posse. Copeland's house was at Flintville, Tenn., but he did not confine his criminal acts to his own State. Of late he has devoted his attention to the neighborhood of Newmarket, this county, and succeeded in making his name a terror on both sides of the State line. He was known to be engaged in illicit distilling, and was accused of at least one murder.

On Saturday a report was brought in that Copeland had been seen in a house near Newmarket, and Sheriff Powell, summoning a posse to help him, started at once for the locality. The party surrounded the house and had no difficulty in capturing Copeland, who was taken completely by surprise and made no resistance.

He professed to be willing to accompany his captors to Newmarket and by his willingness succeeded in throwing them off their guard. When the town was almost reached Copeland suddenly started his horse on the run and darted into a side road. The Sheriff's party started in pursuit, but his horse was a good one and he distanced all but two of his pursuers. They seeing that they would be unable to capture him, fired at his horse to disable it. The bullet missed the horse but hit the rider, and Copeland fell to the road dead.

A Horrible Oath.

Coal Creek, Tenn., September 6.—Word was brought into Camp Carnes to-day by a man who is deemed trustworthy that between 300 and 400 miners met at Jellico last night and, after hearing reports from their scouts, took a horrible oath to wipe out Coal Creek and Oliver Springs before next Saturday. Their plan is to first release the convicts at Olivers and then make an attack on Coal Creek.

Knoxville, Tenn., September 6.—The miners at Coal Creek and Olivers are getting aggressive again. Firing has been going on at the pickets at both places since last night. Additional troops from Nashville and Harriman are now on their way to the mines. All union men have quit work, which causes surprise as their busiest season is approaching.

Cremating Cholera Victims.

New York, Sept. 6.—Additional precautions against cholera are to be instituted today. Henceforth police boats will circle night and day around infected ships, cutting them off altogether from communication with the shore. Watchers on Staten Island say the fires of the crematory retorts on Swinbourne Island were burning fiercely last night. From this it is judged that the latest victims of the scourge were reduced to ashes during the midnight hours.

Corbett Gaining—Sullivan's Stomach Plaster.

New Orleans, Sept. 6.—Since Corbett's arrival here today, betting has changed somewhat in his favor. Odds tonight are 3 to 2 on Sullivan. Sullivan insists on wearing a stomach plaster, against Corbett's wishes. There are prospects of trouble at the ring side tomorrow night.

The Racing Riots.

Chicago, Sept. 6.—During the riot at the Garfield Park race track yesterday many shots were exchanged between police and sporting men. J. M. Brown a millionaire turf man and policeman Powell were killed and officer Henry McDowell was fatally injured.

A Comstock Woman Lost.

San Francisco, Sept. 6.—Mrs. M. Laundry of Virginia City, Nev., and child arrived last night, and was taken with her baggage to a lodging house. They went out for a walk and got lost. They can't find lodging house or trunks.

Failure of Liebes Bros.

San Francisco, Sept. 6.—Liebes Bros & Co., one of the largest tobacco houses on the coast has suspended payment and their liabilities are about a quarter of a million.

The Mackays in Europe.

The S. F. Examiner says: John Mackay did go to London after all, notwithstanding the statement of his friends to the contrary. However, he will be back in the middle of August, and visit San Francisco in September. His son John, so the newspapers say, recently discovered the writer of certain society paragraphs which he believed had been instigated by the Bonynges. This writer was the Hon. Randolph Stewart, of noble family. It seems that he is the protégé of the Princess Christian who is sponsor for the Bonynges in London. Young Mackay quietly sent a note to Stewart offering to perforate him on sight should the attacks on Mrs. Mackay continue. His father, it is said, has gone "across the pond" to take a hand in the affair himself, and he will prove an ugly customer.

A Nut for Strother's Organs.

Carson September 5th. Mr. EDITOR—Can you inform me why Mr. Strothers convention did not put up alternate electors, also candidates for Judge and short term regent. It is said the five nominations made exhausted all the Republicans in the State who do not belong to the Silver Leagues. If that is so Harrison and Reid are certainly in a bad boat in Nevada.

A SILVER MAN.

[You'll have to ask some of the Strother organs here. ED. APPEAL.]

Mrs. Lopez Robbed.

Tuesday afternoon some thieves entered the house of Mrs. Lopez and stole $5. A boy in the neighborhood is suspected.

Mrs. Lopez states that although she can present positive proof as to who took the money that the District Attorney refuses to take action on the ground that her husband owed him money which he did not pay.

Babies' Day.

On Wednesday and Thursday of this week all babies born in Ormsby county can have their pictures taken free of charge at Stewart & Hoover's gallery over Thaxter's drug store. For the next ten days cabinets will be taken at $2.50 a doz.

Before silver was demonetized drinks sold for 25 cents in Nevada and hay was worth from $10 to $20 a bail. Everybody had money enough to buy it at that time too, but at present drinks are worth 5 and 10 cents, hay is worth $10 a ton, and few people have sufficient funds to purchase either. Which condition strikes you best?

Wanted—A boy to work on a ranch must be able to milk. Apply at this office.

ALL SORTS.

The evenings are simply delightful.

Both parties are afraid of New York.

D. L. Sayre, editor of the Chloride Belt, is in the city.

Kelly still heads the procession with delicious melons.

Col. Sutherland and party sailed from London last Saturday.

Senator Stewart is expected back from San Francisco this morning.

Theo Hofer left last evening to take a scientific course at the State University.

The Washoe people have jumped into the political ring with a Peoples' Party ticket.

The District Court meets today at 10 o'clock, and a Grand Jury has been summoned.

Wonder if the new Grand Jury will pay any attention to investigating those county contracts.

Cagwin & Noteware have a large stock of tables, slates, books, etc., so as to insure a supply for all.

J. L. Wines and J. W. Dorsey, the latter accompanied by his wife, departed for home on last evening's train.

A Japanese boy wants a situation as first or second class cook. Will do house or garden work in city or country. Apply at this office.

Lost—A pair of corduroy spring cushions in Empire, near the Morgan mill. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving the same at Long abagh's store or this office. 28

The last heard of Evans and Son-tag was that they were playing billiards in the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, and Detective Davis counting the game.

The Examiner is treating both parties alike in the campaign and reporting all political meetings without leaning or bias. This is true way to run a campaign paper.

The Examiner publishes a lot of biography supposed to be the life of Grover Cleveland. The fact that he hired a substitute during the war is gracefully omitted.

Mr. W. V. Morgan editor and proprietor of the Bodie Miner arrived in Carson last night. He is here for the purpose of purchasing additional machinery for his office.

A few weeks ago the APPEAL laid down a new wooden sidewalk in front of the office, and it was such a success that the V. & T. R. R., not to be outdone, laid a similar walk. Everybody now has to lay a new walk to keep up with the procession.

The Democratic party has practically abandoned the fight in the Southern States. Weaver has made fearful inroads upon Cleveland. The Stuffed Prophet is about as dead South of Mason & Dixon's line as a political corpse can well be. The battle now lies between Harrison and Weaver.

The people have their eyes on Stewart, Bland, Jones, Teller, Wolcott, Morgan and other. If they sneak to the rear when the battle is on and fail to keep the banner floating in the front of the fray, they must prepare to follow Wade Hampton, J. J. Ingols, Congressman Herbert, Blount, Oates, Harter, Hemphill, Johnstone and several score of leaders whom the people have tried and found wanting. Congressman Pierce of Tennessee has done the right thing.—Denver News.

Jack Plant Foreman of the Enterprise has gone to Churchill county with Jim Newlands to take a much needed rest and breathe some fresh air into his lungs to take the place of the bad cigar atmosphere inhaled in the composing room. He forgot to put his hat in the valise which accompanied him and had to call Harry Pfaff to show him how to open it. If there is anything Pfaff can do up quick, it is a valise, and inside of a minute he was right in it. He grabbed his extra hat, jammed it in and re-locked the valise before the anti-morfy yankee knew what struck him. There was an expression of surprise on his face which Harry broke by quietly remarking: "It occurs to me Jack, from your limited knowledge of this paper valise, that you either borrowed or—stole it."

If your watch is out of order in any way you can get it repaired at Golden's by skilled workmen from the best institutions in Europe. The work turned out in jewelry repairing is always finished in the best style and the assortment of goods has no equal anywhere in Nevada. j4tf.
